

- How does the Joint Replacement Doctor in Jaipur check for joint problems?

The major symptoms that are considered by the joint replacement doctor in Jaipur include inflammation and swelling around the joint, loss of joint function or movement, and pain in the joint area, especially at night.

- Who is an ideal candidate according to Joint Replacement Surgeon in Jaipur for the joint replacement surgery?

As per the Joint Replacement Surgeon in Jaipur, a patient is an ideal candidate for surgery if he/she experiences chronic joint pain, loss of movement in joints, bone defects due to bone cancer, or suffered a traumatic joint injury.

- What are the major conditions treated by joint pain specialists in Jaipur?

The joint pain specialists in Jaipur have expertise in treating various joint conditions that lead to damage of the joints such as osteoarthritis, rheumatoid arthritis, bone cancer, trauma injuries.

- According to the knee replacement surgeon, mention some reasons for knee replacement?

The knee replacement surgeon performs the surgery in case the patient has extreme knee pain while resting during day or night, difficulty in proper movement of the knee joint along with stiffness of the knee joint.

- What are the alternatives to joint replacement surgery as explained by the joint pain doctor?

Depending on the severity of the condition, the joint pain doctor may suggest alternatives such as physical therapy and medications that can help block the sensation of pain and assist in relaxing the muscle. A combination of treatments is recommended to the patient before finally taking the decision of surgery.

- Will I need physiotherapy post-surgery at the joint pain clinic in Jaipur?

Yes. Physiotherapy is an essential part of the entire treatment. The doctors at the joint pain clinic suggest that physiotherapy helps in strengthening the weakened muscles around the knee joint and to enhance the mobility of the new joint. Thus, all this improves the walking pattern.

- Can knee replacement surgery be avoided?

According to a knee replacement doctor in Jaipur, the surgery can be avoided if the non-surgical methods provide the desired relief to the patient. This includes physical therapy, weight loss, steroid injections, anti-inflammatory medication, and other similar methods.

- What can I expect regarding recovery and rehabilitation post-surgery?

According to a joint surgeon in Jaipur, most patients are able to walk with the help of crutches and walkers and are discharged after a hospital stay of 2 to 3 days after the surgery. Physiotherapy and specific exercises continue at home to improve the functioning of the replaced joint.

- Can both knees operate at the same time?

The doctor for joint pain in Jaipur suggests that such a decision depends on the patient's existing health conditions and the post-recovery period. Although single hospital stays are some of the benefits still the recovery may take a long time and the patient requires additional assistance at home.