(IDIOMS AND PHRASES)

8. Bad workers always blame their tools:

Meaning: "A bad worker always blames their tools" - If somebody does a job badly or loses in a game and claims that they were let down by their equipment, you can use this to imply that this was not the case.

Example: The football player blamed the rainy weather for his poor performance, but as they say, a bad workman blames his tools.

9. Beggars can't be choosers:

Meaning: This idiom means that people who are in great need must accept any help that is offered, even if it is not a complete solution to their problems.

Example: That dress wasn't exactly what I would have picked for myself, but, hey, it was free, and I'm broke right now. Beggars can't be choosers.
